WEATHER PRODABILITIES, Nov'r. 15, 1879. For the Middle States, threatening weather and rain, with southerly winds, and falling in rameter during the day, followed by slight fall in temperature and variable winds.

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT .- Rev. Dr. Harmson delivered the address at the Rolorm Club meeting, at the M. E. Church South, last night. The audience was large and was made up of almost all classes of our citizens. Influential business men and men just up from dissipation were there. The number of red ribbons seen in every part of the house evinced the feel that the movement is gathering numbers and strength.

The speaker of the evening is a man of learning and has the reputation of being one of the most scholarly preachers in the city of Wash-

He came before the audience last night not to deliver a closely prepared address, but to talk to the people in a familiar way on the subject of temperance. His speech was full of good thought, clothed in well chosen language and interspersed with incidents and illustrations. He was listened to with the closest attention from his first to his last words,

He argued the essential success of the temperacee can e; contrasted the drinking habite of the people of fifty years ago with the drink rig habits of society to day; showed the advance of popular sentiment; declared strong drink, whether taken in sweet wine or strang whiskey, to be a virtient poison; advocated abstinence as the high duty of all good man; illustrated the relation of dram shore to the poverity, wretchedness and erims of the community wherever they exist; arged the inrortance of signing the pladge, and closed with an appeal to the men who had joined the can to be true to their pledge.

At the close of Dr. Harrison's adoress, Nev. ele, Bayla made a very effective ten misutes peent, in which he presented the chains of the reteriord men to the sympathy and assistance of the people of Alexandria. More than 60 turns drinkers and many more mederate drinkers have recently signed the pledge and associated them selves together for partial encouragement and apport. Their number is increasing every day. Many of there men have been reduced to povmy by drunkenness. If they sneared in the work of their own reformation and that of their the temptations of strong drink, where they can I the offsis a grand success. meet each other for social inter they can bring their obl comrades whom they shall try to reform; where they can find books and papers, and a room where they can take a emoke, if they must smoke, and a place where the meetings of the ciab can be held. Euch apariments have been repredend it is proposed. to raist $150 with which to idenisin them, and pay the rent fer one year. Mr. Beyle asked the audience to contribute toward this eldest, He requested the fellowing members of the club to wait on the ambience: Messrs, Wm. P. Padgett, Frank Wood, A. F. Cox, O. F. Raggett, L. D. Harrison, A. L. Glover, Jos. Clark, C. J. Richards and E. F. Wittner. The last named gentleman acted as secretary.

The amount of $50 was taken in cash and
